Weekly Newsletter

Friday 25th April

We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back to the start of the new term—we hope you had a restful and enjoyable break. It's been wonderful to see all of the students back in school this week, full of energy and ready for another exciting half term of learning.

If you would like to find out more about what your child will be learning this half term, all of our curriculum overviews are available on our school website. Simply head to the Learning tab and select the relevant year group to explore the topics and subjects being covered.

We're also proud to share that our Student Leadership Team had an amazing day yesterday visiting Parliament at Westminster. They toured both the House of Commons and the House of Lords, learning all about democracy, how laws are made, and the role of elected representatives. They asked thoughtful questions, listened carefully, and represented our school brilliantly—a real credit to our community. Have a great weekend.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Colin Moore

Our current value is INTEGRITY.

Early Morning Club Reminder

A reminder to all parents and carers that when dropping your child off for an early morning club before school, they must be brought to the main office by an adult. Please do not leave your child until they have been let into school by a member of staff.

This is a vital part of our safeguarding procedures and ensures the safety of all our students. Thank you for your continued support and cooperation. If you have any questions regarding this, please contact the school office.

A reminder that the final PGL parent information session is taking place at 3.30pm on Wednesday 30th April. This session will be with Mr Linney. All information will be sent out following the session for parents that are unable to attend. If you have a specific question, please contact the school office.
