Weekly Newsletter

Friday 26th September

We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you to all the parents who were able to attend our phonics and early reading workshop on Tuesday morning. At Ramsey Manor, phonics and early reading are an absolute priority—students must “learn to read so that they can read to learn.” We hope you found the workshop informative and that it gave you ideas to support your child's learning at home.

Reading every day and enjoying stories together brings so many benefits, from developing vocabulary and comprehension to sparking imagination and a love of learning.

Thank you for supporting your child in this vital part of their education. This week, Year 3 also thoroughly enjoyed their trip to Celtic Harmony Village on Wednesday. They learnt so much from the experience, and it was a fantastic opportunity to bring their classroom learning to life. This was our first school trip of the year, and we are excited for the many more excellent opportunities still to come. As always, thank you for your continued support—it really makes a difference.

Yours sincerely,
Mr Colin Moore

Our current value is HOPE.

Parent Consultation Meetings

Our first set of parent consultation meetings will take place on Monday 20th October (4-7pm) and Wednesday 22nd October (4-6pm). All appointments are ten minutes long and they will take place in the school hall. Booking details will be sent out next week. In order to give you a chance to see your child's work before the day of your appointment, we will be opening our classrooms to parents on Thursday 16th October, 3.30-4pm. Children will be dismissed as normal on that day and then you can enter the classroom with your child.

The Scholastic Book Fair will be returning to Ramsey Manor on Thursday 2nd October. Please look out for a ParentMail with all of the information you need. There will be a fantastic and inspiring set of books to choose from!
