Weekly Newsletter

Friday 13th February

We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

What a fantastic half term it has been at Ramsey Manor. We are incredibly proud of all of our students and everything they have achieved over the past few weeks. Their enthusiasm for learning and commitment to our school values continues to shine through each day. A huge thank you, as always, to our dedicated staff team for their hard work, care and unwavering commitment to our children.

It was also lovely to welcome so many parents and carers into school this morning to read with their child. Sharing books together is so important in developing a love of reading, building confidence and supporting progress across the curriculum. We will be running events like this again in the future as part of our commitment to ensuring that all of our students are confident, enthusiastic readers.

Looking ahead to the first week back after half term, our Year 4 students will finally be heading to Birmingham for Young Voices following the postponement in January. We are just as excited as the students for this incredible event and know they will do us all proud.

Yours sincerely, Mr Colin Moore

Our current value is UNITY.

Open Classrooms- Thursday 5th March

In advance of our parent consultation evenings on Monday 16th and Wednesday 18th March, we will be holding an Open Classroom session for parents on Thursday 5th March, from 3.30–4.00pm. Please do mark this date in your diary. This session will provide an opportunity to visit your child's classroom and look through their books, celebrating the fantastic learning and progress they have made. Viewing this work in advance will help to inform and support discussions during your consultation with the class teacher.

We wish you all a restful and enjoyable half term break and look forward to welcoming everyone back to school on Monday 23rd February.
