Weekly Newsletter

Friday 20th March

We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been so lovely this week to have the sun shining—it really does make such a difference and has brought a wonderful feel across the school. Thank you to all of the parents and carers who were able to attend our parent consultation evenings this week. We hope you found them useful and informative, providing a clear update on how your child is progressing academically and how they are getting on in school. We truly value the partnership we have with our families, so thank you for your continued support. A reminder that you will receive your child's termly report next Friday

27th March. We are committed to keeping you fully informed about your child's learning, and all information about what your child will study throughout the year can be found on our website under the Learning and Curriculum tabs, where you will find detailed curriculum overviews.

Today we also enjoyed celebrating Red Nose Day, raising money for a fantastic charity and supporting those in need.

Finally, we would like to wish all of our families who are celebrating a very Happy Eid!

Yours sincerely, Mr Colin Moore

Our current value is FORGIVENESS.

Share a Book With Your Child

Here at Ramsey Manor Lower School, we want to continue to celebrate the enjoyment of sharing books together. Following the success of our previous session, we are pleased to invite parents and carers into school again on Friday 27th March from 1:40pm – 1:55pm to take part in a short Share a Book session with your child. Parents and carers are welcome to join their child in their classroom to enjoy reading together. Children may bring a book from home, or choose one from the class book corner. Thank you for your support.

I am sure you will join all of us here at Ramsey Manor in wishing Mrs Chandler a speedy recovery. Get well soon Mrs Chandler!
