We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

What a fantastic week we have had here at Ramsey Manor. The school has been a real hive of activity, learning and exploration across all year groups.

On Wednesday, KZ Dance returned to support our learning about Hinduism and the festival of Holi. All students took part in a vibrant Bollywood dance workshop, which culminated in a whole-school celebration using dried paint powders. It was a truly joyful event and perfectly reflected what our school is all about—diversity, inclusion, community, respect, kindness and happiness.

Elsewhere this week, our RockSteady musicians have continued preparing for their next performance, some of our Year 1 and Year 2 students enjoyed a tennis festival, and Years 2, 3 and 4 took part in rugby workshops with Bedford Blues. It really is wonderful to see such a rich range of opportunities enriching our curriculum. Next week, we are excited to welcome author Lou Treleven, who will be leading engaging sessions with each year group to inspire a love of reading and storytelling.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Colin Moore
