Weekly Newsletter

Friday 27th September

We believe that all of our students have the opportunity to thrive in our inclusive, nurturing and inspiring environment where they will grow into creative and confident learners without limits.

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you have all had a good week.

As you will be aware, on Tuesday and Wednesday this week we were inspected by Ofsted. I just wanted to say thank you to all of you for giving feedback and supporting this process. We were very proud and happy to welcome the inspectors and demonstrate what our wonderful school is all about. Thank you also to our brilliant students and our fantastic staff. The final report will not be published for a little while yet but when it is finalised, we will of course share it with you all and publish it on our school website.

Next week the Bookfair arrives and it will be open after school on Thursday 3rd October. It would be great to see you all there. Any books purchased will support the school in further developing our library. We have another parent workshop on Monday at 9am in the school hall all about how we teach writing at Ramsey Manor. Wishing you all an enjoyable weekend and thank you for your support as always. Let's hope we get a little bit of sunshine this weekend.

Yours sincerely,
Mr Colin Moore

Miss Harris is looking forward to welcoming you all. Please enter the school via the main office.

Parent

On Tuesday you received a ParentMail inviting you to book a meeting with your child's class teacher for our upcoming parent consultation evenings. If you need any support with booking an appointment, please contact the school office.
